

As a local community based printer, Bannerworld works with hundred's of locally based businesses and frequently conducts cross-marketing programs. Our team is passionate about supporting and engaging our community in a positive and inclusive manner.

Bannerworld was delighted to run a cross-promotion with Selfie Frames Online and Ella Bache. The Promotion ran for 7 days and was released on Facebook, Instagram, Pinterest, Twitter and emailed to existing customers via EDM (Electronic Direct Mail) on the 22nd of April.

This report is designed to outline the performance of the promotion on each social platform to provide an indication of the promotion's success in reaching the local audience/community.

Promotion Outcomes

The Promotional Post advertising the giveaway was released on the 22nd April on Bannerworld's social media. The post was then shared to and circulated amongst local community groups.

On the 22nd to the 27th of April the Facebook post was boosted by $100 to increase audience reach. The following statistics were achieved over the promotions 2 week period.

3,036 People
REACHED

85
ENGAGEMENTS

10
POST LIKES

2
COMMENTS

4
SHARES

19 People
REACHED

1
PROFILE VISIT

2
POST LIKES

0
COMMENTS

1
SAVE

81,000
RECEIVED

6,172
OPENED

938
CLICKED

Overall, this was a very successful promotion and on the 28th of March Natalie Bazun-Coates was awarded the $250 Ella Bache Voucher and Selfie Frame.