

As a local community based printer, Bannerworld works with hundred's of locally based businesses and frequently conducts cross-marketing programs. Our team is passionate about supporting and engaging our community in a positive and inclusive manner.

Bannerworld was delighted to run a cross-promotion with RedBalloon. The Promotion ran for 12 days and was released on Facebook, Instagram, Pinterest, Twitter and emailed to existing customers via EDM (Electronic Direct Mail) on the 25th of February.

This report is designed to outline the performance of the promotion on each social platform to provide an indication of the promotion's success in reaching the local audience/community.

Promotion Outcomes

The Promotional Post advertising the giveaway was released on the 25th of February on Bannerworld's social media. The post was then shared to and circulated amongst local community groups.

On the 26th to the 30th of February the Facebook post was boosted by $150 to increase audience reach. The following statistics were achieved over the promotions 2 week period.

2,984 People
REACHED

171
ENGAGEMENTS

34
POST LIKES

30
COMMENTS

9
SHARES

41 People
REACHED

4
PROFILE VISIT

14
POST LIKES

17
COMMENTS

1
SAVE

85,809
RECEIVED

8,919
OPENED

1078
CLICKED

Overall, this was a very successful promotion and on the 9th of March James Whittaker was awarded the $500 RedBalloon Voucher.